World Cafe Live at the Queen, Premier Center for the Arts, and The Arts at Trinity present
Serafin String Quartet in April

(Wilmington, Del.) March 8, 2016 – Serafin String Quartet announces concerts in Delaware and Pennsylvania in April. The Quartet will return to World Cafe Live at the Queen \(April 9\), Crosslands Concert Series \(April 12\) and The Arts at Trinity \(April 30\). On April 15, the Serafins travel to Milton, Del. for their first performance at the Premier Center for the Arts. Concert repertoire includes new collage concert Kismet! and the Magic of Borodin, in addition to works by Beethoven and Mozart.

Journey with the Serafins back in time and across the oceans to old Baghdad of the Arabian Nights in their newest collage concert, Kismet! and the Magic of Borodin. Follow princes, beggars, magicians, maidens and maids through the course of a day that will transform all their fates. With love, fortune and identity all at stake, what is their destiny? What is their KISMET? The story is woven into Alexander Borodin's String Quartet No. 2.

Saturday, April 9 at 7:00 p.m.

About Serafin String Quartet

Serafin String Quartet's world premiere recording featuring early chamber works by award-winning composer Jennifer Higdon will be released by Naxos on July 30, 2013. The Quartet's debut recording (Centaur Records 2010) was hailed by The Strad Magazine for "playing with style and sophistication" and the American Record Guide for "combining true rhythmic precision, beautiful intonation, and beautiful articulation with an excellent sense of balance and deeply satisfying musical phrasing." Serafin String Quartet has been applauded by audiences around the nation, including sellout crowds at repeat performances in New York City's Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall. The Quartet serves as Quartet in Residence at the University of Delaware and takes its name from master violin maker, Sanctus Serafin, who in 1728 crafted the violin currently played by Kate Ransom. The other members of the Quartet play Testore instruments, thanks to the generosity of Dr. William J. Stegeman. For more information, please visit www.serafinquartet.org.
